

VAVS

Department of Veterans Affairs Voluntary Service - better known as

V A V S

Hello, Mothers - everywhere! Especially Blue Star Mothers of America, Inc.

You have joined one of the finest women's organization with which I have been affiliated! The Mothers v

Every Chapter needs a hospital chairman (chairwoman, chairmother - you choose) whose responsibility

We have over 150 V A Medical Centers/Healthcare Centers across the country. We have CBOC's (pron

Many of our heroes will come back from the wars in need of some kind of medical care. They will join w

All of the facilities need volunteers. There are many areas where a volunteer can help; reading to a blind

As a volunteer, you choose where you want to work, what you want to do, how often you want to do it an

Blue Star Mothers of America, Inc. need to have a VAVS Representative in every VA facility! The Rep is

When our Heroes signed on to serve our country, we promised to take care of them! Will Blue Star Mot

For more info Amie Parker get involved in your area Contact

Power Point from Convention.

Here is a link that shows where our chapters are and the facilities that have represented as well as those

<http://j.mp/2ZQAIRy> Please take a look at this time map and see if your chapter is able to provide a VAV

Here is a Guide for VAVS Representatives